```
multiple discriminant analysis requires dependent variable of categorical type and has distinct levels for its analysis.

The dependent variable Popularity in our data is continuous and cannot be split into different groups and hence we cannot perform multiple discriminant analysis on our data
```